Dear Ms. Kjemtrup:

I telephoned you promptly after receiving your 8 January 1996 letter and left a message for you to return the call. No call was returned.

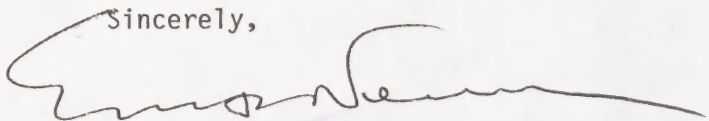

You already seem to have used our 1817 view of St. Louis without permission, giving the wrong credit information.

Please send a copy of what you published and if it is wrong, please run an errata as you said you would. Please send a copy of the errata also.

We ordinarily are glad to furnish picture publication permission without charge to your type of organization, but it seems you have acted first and asked for permission afterward.

Please clarify what you have done and are planning to do.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Eric P. Newman', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Eric P. Newman
